

News of Intermountain Region

OGDEN DEPARTMENT

PERMANENT OFFICE, 2438 1/2 WASHINGTON AVE. BOTH PHONES 322; OFFICE HOURS—8 A. M. TO 10:30 A. M., 6 P. M. TO 8 P. M.

CHINESE THE VICTIM OF BRUTAL ASSAULT

Truck Gardener Set Upon by Three Men and Terribly Beaten.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 20.—With deep cuts on his head which laid bare the skull, and with bruises on every part of his body, a Chinese truck gardener was brought to the police station last night after being brutally assaulted by three men.

The Chinese says that he was sitting in his house, which is a small dismount along the Oregon Short Line tracks near Third street, when three men entered and began to beat him. He lost consciousness and was lying on the ground when the men left. He was found by a patrolman who took him to the police station.

The police kept the matter quiet, hoping to apprehend the guilty parties, and as the Chinese could furnish only a meager description of his assailants, it is doubtful if they will ever be arrested.

CHIEF BROWNING TALKS TO THE PARENTS' CLASS

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 20.—Before a large gathering at the Lyman ward meeting house this morning, Chief of Police Thomas E. Browning addressed the Parents' class of the Lyman ward, which met for the purpose of discussing the best method of educating their children.

Chief Browning placed the blame upon the parents in many cases where young girls have been led astray by companions whom they met at the public dance halls, because the parents allowed their children to go to such places without an escort or chaperon.

FREIGHT TRAIN JUMPS TRACK, CAUSING TIE-UP

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 20.—Traffic on the Salt Lake division of the Northern Pacific railroad was tied up for several hours this morning by a freight car which failed to make the siding and ran into the main track.

Passenger train No. 3 was delayed at Lemay for nearly four hours, while the work of removing the wrecked car was in progress. The damage was confined to the wrecked car, which was badly smashed up.

Big Concert Tuesday.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 20.—The Sunday school class of the Sixth ward will give a concert of a big concert to be held in the Lyman ward meeting house next Tuesday evening. Some of the leading soloists of the city have taken part in the programme which is now being planned.

Sacred Heart Academy Notes

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 20.—A box party, instead of study period, was the order of the day at the Sacred Heart academy, where the young ladies had a very quiet, but very enjoyable, day. The young ladies had a very quiet, but very enjoyable, day. The young ladies had a very quiet, but very enjoyable, day.

CANNING FACTORY IS ASSURED FOR MURRAY

Special to The Tribune.

MURRAY, Feb. 20.—Owing to the resignation of L. E. Brown, F. E. Vickery and R. P. Miller from the board of directors of the Utah Canning company, this place, a new board has been elected. The officers of the company now are: President and manager, L. E. Miller, vice president, Francis McDowell, secretary, J. L. Brown, treasurer, W. H. Hatch.

That a $25,000 canning factory will be erected here very shortly is now assured. J. W. McHenry, chairman of the committee, has given out the information that the amount necessary to launch the project had been subscribed and the location would be selected this week.

Just as soon as the location is passed upon, the factory will begin immediately. A representative of the company will be in the field Monday contracting acreage for the production of tomatoes, J. H. Broderick of Ogden has been secured as processor for the new factory.

MUDLAVIA Treatment Draws Out Pain and Pains with the famous Mudlavia. Thousands have been cured. Big Hotel open all year. Send for book. Address R. E. KRAMER, Pres., Kramer, Ind.

1/2 OFF CREDIT TO ALL

The price of everything in our store is cut in half. Men's, Women's and Children's Suits and Coats.

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD. $1.00 a Week—$4.00 a Month

Mercantile Installment Co. 74 West Second South St.

RODENT OF DEEP SNOW FOUND UNDER DEEP SNOW

Andrew Wilson, Who Disappeared Thursday, Undoubtedly Frozen to Death.

Special to The Tribune.

EUREKA, Feb. 20.—The body of Andrew Wilson, the miner who disappeared from this place last Thursday, was found this morning by Bertie Hickman, a member of a searching party, in a gulch beside the road which leads to the East Fork. The body was found under a deep snow.

Wilson was found lying on his back, with his head under a pile of snow. He was wearing a heavy coat and a hat. The body was found in a gulch beside the road which leads to the East Fork. The body was found under a deep snow.

BIG HOTEL FOR WEISER; SAWMILL PLANT, TOO

Special to The Tribune.

WEISER, Feb. 20.—At a meeting of the citizens of the Commercial club rooms here was held last night. The plan was to raise the money by popular subscription—$75,000 to be raised and then borrow the other $25,000. Several sites are named for the building, but the stockholders will all have a chance to vote on the plan.

Judge Ed L. Bryan, judge of the district court of this district, who has been prominently mentioned for Democratic nomination for governor, declines to allow his name to be put forward. He does not desire to enter into the political arena, but has determined to stick to his profession.

Material is being placed for the construction of a new church by the Christian church society here. The new church will be the finest and largest church in the city. Its seating capacity will be 200. It will have a pipe organ and will be the finest and largest church in the city.

Waller's Body Arrives.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 20.—The remains of H. J. Waller, the Southern Pacific watchman, who was killed in the Montello railroad yard Saturday morning, were brought to Ogden this morning and are now at the Lindquist undertaking parlors. The body will be taken to the home of David H. Doney, 2065 Fifth avenue, tomorrow. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Second ward meeting house.

Interstate Commerce Commission Brings to Light Questionable Situation.

Special to The Tribune.

That some of the leading railroad men in the United States own heavy interests in coal mines that are served by the roads under their control, has been brought to light recently by the interstate commerce commission in the hearing in Chicago before Special Commissioner G. H. Brown. This hearing was brought on by the Tillman-Gillespie resolution, which was passed by the U. S. House of Representatives.

PROVO IDEAL IS OFF; WOOLEN MILLS NOT SOLD

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Feb. 20.—The option on the Provo woolen mills held by J. H. Bear, a representative of the Farmers' Co-operative and Educational Union of America, has expired. The mills are now open to the public and are being sold at the expense of the taxpayers. The mills are now open to the public and are being sold at the expense of the taxpayers.

Overrun With Tramps.

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Feb. 20.—The tramps are running rampant in Provo. There are now twenty-five of the wanderers domiciled in the city jail and are being fed at the expense of the taxpayers. The tramps are running rampant in Provo. There are now twenty-five of the wanderers domiciled in the city jail and are being fed at the expense of the taxpayers.

Divorce Granted and Wanted.

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Feb. 20.—Isabelle Oakley of Spanish Fork was granted a divorce by Judge Booth Saturday from Fred Oakley on the grounds of failure to provide. The parties were married in Salt Lake City January 19, 1909.

Lake Shore Lands.

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Feb. 20.—A movement is on foot here to have the land along Utah lake, which was withdrawn a number of years ago, and which is now being used for the lake a reservoir, thrown open to entry. The project of making a reservoir here has been abandoned.

Operation for Appendicitis.

Special to The Tribune.

MONROE, Feb. 20.—An operation for appendicitis was performed yesterday in the afternoon upon Binning Gould, at the home of his father, F. B. Gould, Dr. J. C. Clark of Monroe had charge of the operation, assisted by Dr. J. E. Steiner of Richfield and J. L. Arntson of Esplanade. The patient is now going through the ordeal nicely.

Jurors From Tintic.

Special to The Tribune.

EUREKA, Feb. 20.—The following Tintics will serve during the March term of the district court: William H. Thomas, R. H. Thompson, John Rowe, Fred Burt, Frank Garret, James Morgan, James L. Williams, Edward Hanks, John H. Foley, Jacob Christensen, Mammoth, David Miskell, John Belts and Alfred Patton, Silver City, J. A. Taylor.

TRACY DRISKELL KNOWN: HIS MOVES IN CARBON

Special to The Tribune.

PRICED, Utah, Feb. 20.—The pending sale of the state prison of Tracy Driskell at Salt Lake City by Judge J. D. Lewis of the district court to one year in the penitentiary for assisting in the transfer of the state prison of Tracy Driskell to the county jail will be brought to the attention of the public.

RESERVOIR COMPANY WANTS MORE WATER

Special to The Tribune.

AMERICAN FORK, Feb. 20.—Considerable agitation has been aroused in this city by an attempt of the Provo Reservoir company to have the water rights of the American Fork canyon transferred to the reservoir company, for which the company will return an amount equivalent to the value of the water rights.

The object of the reservoir company in seeking a right to all of the water which comes from the American Fork canyon is to use it for irrigation purposes.

A Pleasant Wedding.

Special to The Tribune.

EUREKA, Feb. 20.—Richard Davey and Miss Clara Thomas were made man and wife Thursday night by the Rev. Samuel Allen of the Methodist church. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Moses Tippett, at Eureka. The wedding was a very pleasant one.

Mining Man Dead.

Special to The Tribune.

RICHFIELD, Feb. 20.—S. M. Haughey, one of the most eccentric and widely known mining men of the district, died last week at that place of heart failure. He was nearly 80 years of age and had spent over thirty years in the mining business.

Check Turned Over.

Special to The Tribune.

EUREKA, Feb. 20.—J. L. Schofield, clerk of Eureka camp 451, Woodmen of the World, yesterday turned over to the Eureka camp a check for $200, which was the amount of the dues of the camp for the year 1909.

Percheron Horse Company.

Special to The Tribune.

RICHFIELD, Feb. 20.—Articles of incorporation of the Damiseau Percheron Horse company of Monroe were filed with the county clerk yesterday. The company is incorporated for $5000.

RAILROADS OWN COAL INTERESTS

Special to The Tribune.

That some of the leading railroad men in the United States own heavy interests in coal mines that are served by the roads under their control, has been brought to light recently by the interstate commerce commission in the hearing in Chicago before Special Commissioner G. H. Brown.

PENNSYLVANIA'S FAST TRAIN JUMPS ITS TRACKS

Special to The Tribune.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 20.—As Pennsylvania train No. 30, which usually makes New York in about four hours, was delayed in leaving New York last night by thirty minutes, the loss of time was made up by a fast run over a level stretch of the Pennsylvania division, five of its six cars jumped the track a mile west of Alto.

TO AMEND PATENT LAWS TO PROTECT INVENTORS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Substantial changes in the law affecting patent procedure are being introduced by bills favorably reported by the house committee on patents.

NEW APPENDIX RECORD SET BY SHARON PATIENT

SHARON, Pa., Feb. 20.—Competition for world's records in the length of the vermiform appendix today disclosed a new winner. The standing now is as follows:

First—Edwin Ross, Sharon, Pa., seven inches, 6 1/2 inches.

Second—Howard Gould, Winthrop, Mass., 6 1/2 inches.

Third—George Ross, a former Yale athlete, 6 1/2 inches.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

Dr. O'Brien, Reed and Kennedy—it took all three to remove the appendix from a patient at the Buhl hospital yesterday.

IN BEHALF OF UTAH'S DIXIE

Special to The Tribune.

Editor Tribune: The suggestion of building a railroad from Salt Lake to the Canadian border, according to the plan as outlined in the Tribune, is a very timely one.

1. Have a home ready for the Dixie.

2. Have all the preliminary work done before the Dixie arrives.

3. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

4. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

5. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

6. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

7. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

8. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

9. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

10. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

11. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

12. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

13. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

14. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

15. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

16. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

17. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

18. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

19. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

20. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

21. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

22. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

23. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

24. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

25. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

26. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

27. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

28. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

29. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

30. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

31. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

32. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

33. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

34. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

35. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

36. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

37. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

38. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

39. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

40. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

41. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

42. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

43. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

RAILROADS

Special to The Tribune.

That some of the leading railroad men in the United States own heavy interests in coal mines that are served by the roads under their control, has been brought to light recently by the interstate commerce commission in the hearing in Chicago before Special Commissioner G. H. Brown.

1. Have a home ready for the Dixie.

2. Have all the preliminary work done before the Dixie arrives.

3. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

4. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

5. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

6. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

7. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

8. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

9. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

10. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

11. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

12. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

13. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

14. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

15. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

16. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

17. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

18. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

19. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

20. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

21. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

22. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

23. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

24. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

25. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

26. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

27. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

28. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

29. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

30. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

31. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

32. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

33. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

34. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

35. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

36. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

37. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

38. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

39. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

40. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

41. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

42. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

43. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

RAILROADS

Special to The Tribune.

That some of the leading railroad men in the United States own heavy interests in coal mines that are served by the roads under their control, has been brought to light recently by the interstate commerce commission in the hearing in Chicago before Special Commissioner G. H. Brown.

1. Have a home ready for the Dixie.

2. Have all the preliminary work done before the Dixie arrives.

3. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

4. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

5. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

6. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

7. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

8. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

9. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

10. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

11. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

12. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

13. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

14. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

15. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

16. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

17. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

18. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

19. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

20. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

21. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

22. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

23. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

24. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.

25. Have the company make a plan for the Dixie.